

Dyanix acquires service business contracts of Kodak Alaris in Austria

HOUTEN (NL), March 11, 2022 - Dyanix, a leading solutions provider in digital transformation, document capture and information management solutions announces the acquisition of Kodak Alaris' Service Business contracts in Austria. Dyanix is appointed as the Kodak Alaris Authorized Service Provider (ASP) for the Austrian market and has been certified by Kodak Alaris. Effective March 10th, 2022, Dyanix will look after all customers with a Kodak Alaris Service Business contract.

Dyanix has an existing service structure, knowhow and a solid network in Austria, as well as more than 20 years of experience in providing high level services for hardware and software related to document capture and information management. In 2021 Dyanix also took over Kodak Alaris' service activities in Spain, Belgium and The Netherlands.

The fact that current Kodak Alaris Service staff will transfer to Dyanix assures continuity and a high level of services for the Austrian Kodak Alaris customers. During the transition period, the Kodak Alaris Technical Services team will provide comprehensive support, and the Dyanix service engineers will be continuously updated and trained on all new Kodak Alaris solutions and service features.

"With the acquisition of Kodak Alaris' Service contracts we are one step closer to establishing and expanding our position as No. 1 service provider in the information management market in Austria," says Peter de Boer, Chief Executive Officer of Dyanix. "With our enlarged service team, we are very excited and committed to deliver the best service for Kodak Alaris scanner products to our customers. Our engineers are certified and well trained."
